Hong Kong

Hong Kong is simply dazzling. Experience the distinctive blend of East and West in this dynamic city. Feel the rush as you indulge in shopping. Savor culinary delicacies. Open your senses to Hong Kong amazing skyline, bustling harbor and peaceful countryside. Come discover the diversity and sophistication that is Hong Kong. You'll love it! Most likely many visitors have already heard about the market. It is a perfect place to find silk garments, sportswear, art, Chinese costume jewel, souvenirs and other bargains, and is definitely worth half a day or so.

Situated on the southern side of Hong Kong Island, it is one of the world acclaimed educational theme parks covering more than 870,000 square meters of land. Victoria Park is one of the biggest patches of green grass on the northern side of Hong Kong Island. It is one of the territory's most popular parks. Opened in September 2005, Hong Kong Disneyland soon became the latest and the most popular tourist attraction of Hong Kong. Probably the most well-known and busiest temple in the city, Wong Tai Sin Temple was built in 1973 on the site of a previous temple. At this impressive temple, all Taoism and Confucianism are practiced.
