Uzbekistan

Tashkent is the capital of Uzbekistan as well as the largest city in Central Asia. It is a pleasant city where you will find wide tree-lined boulevards, peaceful parks and a blend of modern and 19th century Russian buildings. Attractions here include an abundance of museums as well as amusement parks and bustling bazaars. Attractions in Tashkent include a mosque in the Hast Imam area, the History Museum of the People of Usbekistan, the Fine Arts Museum of Usbekistan, the Museum of Applied Arts, the Amur Timur Museum, the Navoy Literary Museum, the Art Gallery of Uzbekistan and the Tashkent Galley of Modern Art. You may also like to visit the Tashkent TV Tower where you can enjoy stunning views of the city. Tashkent has a continental climate with dry conditions year round, although some precipitation falls during the winter period. Summers are hot, winters are cold (but not extreme). The national airline is Uzbekistan Airways, which has flights to neighbouring countries such as Kazakhstan, Turkmenistan and Kyrgyzstan, as well as connections further away in Asia.
